Membership is open to all those interested in works made "in the small".

There is an annual subscription fee for either artist or patron. The year will run from the beginning of February to the end of the following January.

The Society holds at least two exhibitions a year. Only those paid-up members may submit work for selection and exhibition.

Selection for exhibition is made by a suitably qualified committee, which will provide a brief critique of each unselected work.

Members will receive at least three informative newsletters per year.

Regular meetings, critiques and workshops will be held. These are organised in order to help and encourage new members.

Members are encouraged to make suggestions as to the running of the society, either to the committee or for inclusion in the newsletter.
